

CONSTITUTION

Scottish Radio Car Association (SRCA)

Association formed 9th January, 2005

SRCA Constitution

Title

The association shall be known as:

“Scottish Radio Car Association” (SRCA).

Objects

- To promote the construction and racing of radio controlled cars.
- To facilitate the exchange of information and ideas related to the sport.
- To follow rules and standards for construction and racing as detailed by the British Radio Car Association (BRCA) with local amendments
- To encourage Regional, National and International competition within a co-ordinated calendar.

Membership

Membership shall be open to all and shall be deemed to commence when the club issues the appropriate membership documentation. Membership shall be within the following categories

- Full Racing Members – all members of SRCA which subject to the necessary administrative procedures pay the current full membership fee to join the club and affiliate to the BRCA.
- Full Members – all members of SRCA who subject to the necessary administrative procedures pay the current full membership fee to join the club, and affiliate to the BRCA.

All members have the right to attend and vote on issues at the AGM.

A proxy vote is permissible on items that have been advised to all members no later than 6 weeks before the published date of the AGM

Subscription

The subscription period shall be one year running from the 1st of January to the 31st of December of the same year. Membership subscriptions shall be reviewed and fixed annually at the AGM. Any member who has not paid his/her subscription within one month of the renewal date shall be assumed to have terminated his/her membership.

Resignation

Any member wishing to withdraw from membership must notify the Secretary in writing.

Cessation of Membership

Any member failing to renew his/her membership as required or any member notifying his/her resignation shall forfeit all right to claim on the club, it's property or it's funds.

Officials

To qualify for election to any club committee position, the member so elected must first be a full member of SRCA. The following officers shall be elected annually for a period of one year at the AGM. Nominations for these positions are to be sent to the Secretary in writing six weeks before the AGM. The nominee must be a full member of SRCA: - Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer. A quorum of the committee will consist of at least 60% of the officers.

Power of the Committee

The committee shall manage all concerns of the club upholding the club constitution, and shall have powers to settle all points of interpretation of club rules, providing such powers shall not overrule a resolution of the AGM.

The committee may, from time to time, fill any vacancy in its number, which may arise for the remaining period of office. In case the conduct of any member, in or out of club events, shall in the opinion of the committee be injurious to the character or interest of the club, the committee shall request such member to attend before them to justify his/her conduct.

The committee after hearing such member, or in the event of such member or neglecting to attend before them, shall have the power to expel such member, or call upon them to resign and shall there upon cease to be a member of the club. In every case of expulsion or required resignation of a member the decision shall be final, and the excluded members shall have no remedy against the club or committee, or any right of appeal. A minimum of two-thirds majority of all members of the committee shall be necessary to order an expulsion.

Voting

Proposals for change of the club constitution or constitution rules shall require a two-thirds majority at an AGM, conference, postal or proxy vote respectively. All elections of officers shall be decided by a straight vote of those present unless any other of the other voting mechanisms is employed.

Finance

All matters relating to the spending of the club shall be referred through the treasurer to the committee. The Treasurer shall make annual financial statements to the club/AGM offering all relevant documents for inspection at the meeting.

Financial Year

November 1st to October 31st

Annual General Meeting

The AGM shall be held as soon after the end of the financial year as practical, and in any event not later than the month of December following. The following business shall be transacted at the AGM: -

- Chairman's Report
- Treasurers Report
- Secretary's report
- Prize Giving
- Election of Committee
- Review and agree SRCA race dates/venues.
- Review and agree the annual membership fee
- Review and agree the race fees

- Discussions arising from proposals received.
- Discussion of any other business
- Set next years AGM date

Extraordinary General Meeting

An EGM may be called at any time if the Committee so decide. The Secretary shall also call a meeting on receiving written request to that effect, signed by no less than 10% of the current membership. Such a general meeting shall take place within 28 days of the written request being received and all members shall receive 14 days notice of the meeting, but without the necessity for detailing any further particulars.

A resolution of an EGM shall not be valid unless 10% of the current membership is present and not unless the resolution be passed by at least two thirds of the members voting.

Minutes of Meeting

Minutes of an AGM, EGM or annual conference shall be published as soon as convenient thereafter and in any case before the next similar meeting. Minutes of committee meetings shall be available to all committee members before the next similar meeting. Copies of all minutes shall be kept indefinitely by the appropriate officers.

Deficiency of Funds

In the event of insolvency, the deficit shall be made good by an equal payment from each member or in such a manner as an AGM or EGM shall decide.

Members Addresses

Each member's address shall be recorded on the associations records and shall be deemed to be correct unless the Secretary be notified in writing of an alteration of change of said address.

Constitution Rules

A copy of the constitution shall be forwarded to each member on joining and thereafter available at the club. These rules so presented shall be binding on every member. No member shall be absolved from the effect of these rules on allegation of not having received them.

Interpretation of Rules

The club committee shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of these rules and the decision of the committee upon any question of interoperation, or upon any other matter affecting the club not provided for by these rules, shall be final and binding on the members.

Alteration of Constitution

The constitution defines the rules for the governing of the club. All alterations or additions in the Constitution may be only adopted by resolution at an AGM or EGM convened according to the constitution. Such resolution must receive a two thirds majority voting.

Dissolution of Club

If at any meeting a resolution for the dissolution of the club be passed by a two thirds majority of the membership present, and such resolution be confirmed at an EGM, held not less than one month thereafter and at which not less than half the members are present, by a majority of two thirds of the members the committee shall thereupon or at such time date as shall be specified in the resolution, proceed to dissolve the club.

The committee shall proceed to realise the property of the club, and after discharge of all liabilities, shall divide the same amongst all the members according to the proportions decided at the EGM. Upon the completion of such division the club shall be dissolved.

Obligation of Members

- To uphold the Constitution of the club
- Members must keep the club informed of their names and addresses
